

School Librarians, It's Time for Training

How to Succeed in the PDE Educator Effectiveness System

Whether you are classified as:
Classroom Teaching Professional (82-1)
Or
Non-Teaching Professional (82-3)

Learn right now:

- How to Navigate the Educator Effectiveness System Process & Timeline
 - What Questions to Ask Your Administrators
- How to Develop and Assess Measurable Student Learning Objectives (SLOs)
 - What Evidence Demonstrates Effectiveness in the Four Danielson Domains
- How to Prepare for a Successful Formal Observation or Differentiated Supervision

Bring your SLOs and Portfolios to Share & Receive Helpful Advice

Mark your calendar

Thursday, June 30, 9 AM - 12 PM

Microsoft Technology Center, 45 Liberty Blvd., Malvern, PA 19355
Suite 210 (Room: MPR3), 2nd floor

Instructors: Dr. Mary K. Biagini, LSTA School Librarian Leadership Project Director,
University of Pittsburgh, with Adrienne Matjasic, West Chester East HS Librarian, & Laura Martin, West Chester Henderson HS Librarian

Co-Sponsored by:

- Pennsylvania School Librarians Association (PSLA)
- University of Pittsburgh School Library Certification Program (SLCP)

Please RSVP no later than Thursday, June 23 to Laura Martin at lmartin2@wcasd.net.
*Space is limited (approximately 30 seats available).